Diana L Grady

Diana graduated from Valley High School in Lonaconing, MD in 1975 the year the Vietnam War ended, pet rocks were the rage, and people were afraid to go to the beaches after watching, Jaws. In 1977, Diana was hired as a Magistrate Assistant in Mineral County when the Magistrate Court replaced the Justice of the Peace system. She worked as a manager at the local Shoe World for a couple of years until she decided to go to college and get a secretarial degree to gain employment in the field she loved. In 1991 she graduated from PSC with an Associate of Applied Science in the secretarial program and received the Outstanding Secretarial Award. She was hired as an Accounting Assistant in 1991 in the Business Office at PSC and continued working towards the RBA degree which she completed in 2003.

Diana has been the Administrative Assistant in Student Life for 20 years. She served as the Classified Council Chair in 1994-1996 and has held the position as secretary of the PSC Social Club since 2001. She received the Classified Employees Council Outstanding Staff Person of the Year for 2008-2009 and was an Outstanding Staff Nominee in 2014-2015. She also served as the secretary to the Recycling Committee.

Diana and husband Rob will celebrate 40 years of marriage this July. They are the parents of Jeremy and Kristen. Her family has grown to include Kristen's husband Brad and grandsons Brady and Connor Rotruck. Diana enjoys spending time with her grandsons and especially watching them play sports.

Her hobbies include gardening, canning and jelly making. Diana is also busy serving her church preparing the bulletins, teaching Sunday School, etc.

Gary A Seldomridge

Gary Seldomridge, Professor of Mathematics, is originally from Ronceverte, WV. He received a BS Mathematics degree from Davis and Elkins College in 1972, a MA Mathematics degree from WVU in 1974, and a PH.D. Mathematics degree from WVU in 1992.

His honors include the WV Council of Teachers of Mathematics 2010 College Teacher of the Year and the 2012 Outstanding Service Award. He is the web master and member of the Executive Committee of WV Council of Teachers of Mathematics.

Gary and wife Debbie have a daughter Sarah, and a son and daughter-in-law Daniel and April.

Gary listed his hobby as—teaching mathematics.

In addition to publishing a couple of scholarly articles, he has authored and co-authored four books and is currently working on a fifth book. He has presented math topics to all levels from elementary students to an international conference in Continuum Theory. In 1992 he was the first person in almost 50 years to receive a Ph.D. in mathematics from WVU. Gary designed and directed the first two Governor's Middle Schools for Science and Mathematics at WVU and developed curriculum and software being used by teachers over the entire state and beyond.

Rebecca E. Wilkins

Rebecca E. Wilkins received her Medical Secretarial Diploma from Strayer College in Washington, DC, an A.A. Secondary Education from PSC, and both a B.S. English/General Business and a M.Ed. English/Educational Curriculum from Frostburg State College. At Frostburg State College she was a member of Sigma Tau Delta National English Honorary and at PSC she was honored as the 2005 Student Support Services Staff Honoree of the Year.

Rebecca has worked as an Office Manager, Legal Secretary, and Medical Secretary, and as a Lecturer at Allegany Community College in the Secretarial Science Department teaching medical terminology, medical machine transcription, and business communications. She also developed and taught the legal terminology course at ACC from 1979 to 1985.

She began her employment at PSC as a Lecturer in English 101 and English 102 from 1987-1991, became the Interim Housing Coordinator in 1989, Director of Residence Life from 1995-2001, and in 2001 to present she works as a Financial Aid Counselor III. She was the PSC representative to the Advisory Council of Classified Employees to the University System of West Virginia from 1987-1995, a member of the Institutional Board of Advisors for Potomac State College from 1996-2005, and served as the Alumni Activities Coordinator from 1997-2002.

Rebecca's family includes her son Lincoln H Wilkins, Jr., Ph.D., spouse Amanda, and grandson Andrew and her daughter Stephan Jones, spouse John, and granddaughters Jacqueline and Jennifer.

Her hobbies and interests include two oral history projects, funded by Hope, Love, and Charity Foundation, Inc., Thomas, WV: Miners' Women interviews of women whose fathers and husbands worked in the mines in the Thomas, WV, area and who were stay-at-home mothers and wives and Thomas Town Talk – interviews of long-time residents of Thomas, WV, about their memories of growing up in Thomas – the schools, holidays, family traditions, etc. Also she was a founding member of The New Historic Thomas, an organization whose goal was and is to revitalize and restore the City of Thomas, WV.
